

When dealing with half-life data, it is essential to
.....the background radiation first.